

THE  TIMES

bricks & mortar

Friday July 29 2011

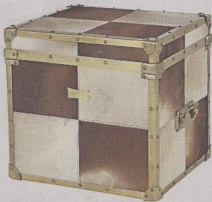

A nod to Zen

Far Eastern decorative pieces have become part of the island's style thanks to the hippy community.

£6

sainsburys.co.uk

Multitasking luggage

It's not ideal for Ryanair passengers but those travelling with an airline that allows for baggage flexibility can transport fragile objects in this sturdy ponyskin trunk that doubles as a stool or side table.

£790

occa-home.co.uk

Heady aromas

Flickering candles set the scene for evening entertainment, be it dinner on the terrace or dancing around the pool. Choose floral scents for summer nights.

£75

Raja Parfums at harrods.com

Designer details

Open-plan living rooms act as frames for 'design art'. Recycled chairs are popular, as are sculptural works such as Stéphane Parmentier's oak stools for Ormond Editions. They echo Ibiza's natural colours and Parmentier has used them in his interior-design projects on the island.

£2,150 each, limited edition
london.com